

REPRESENTATIVE
FRED A. STOCKS,
CHIEF CLERK U. S. TREASURY.

United States Treasury Exhibit,
World's Columbian Exposition,
Washington, D. C. March 14, 1893.

Hon. O. C. Bobyshell,
Superintendent of the Mint
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I am in receipt of your esteemed favor of March 11th with the enclosures as stated. Upon examination, however, I find that they do not conform in all respects to the rules and regulations of the accounting officers of this Department. The item for meals en route should be itemized, giving the days and the cost of each meal. It is also necessary that the street car fare and hack hire be given in detail.

If you will kindly have these changes made and return the vouchers I will take pleasure in expediting their payment.

Respectfully yours,

Fred A. Stocks
Representing Treasury Department
Government Board of Control.
